Information about Lectures are posted on www.niwothistoricalsociety.org

It is a busy year as we usually bring you four lectures annually. This year the Niwot Historical Society is hosting five Now&Then Lecture Series events. We hope you enjoy the Now&Then Lecture Series.

Fire House Museum ~ Open

Saturday, August 19th, 5:30-7pm at the Fire House Museum during the opening songs at the House Blend Band Concert on Second Avenue

Saturday, September 9th, 5:30-7pm at the Fire House Museum during the opening songs at the House Blend Band Concert on Second Avenue

Saturday, September 16th, 10am-3pm at the Fire House Museum during the Honey Bee Festival

We Need Some Volunteer Hosts:

The concerts and this festival are casual and event guests walk around and view the displays. It is a good time to host an Open House at the Museum.

Do You Have A Niwot Artifact?

- Do you have a menu from Rev. Taylor's Restaurant?
- Do you have a membership card to the Rec Center?
- Do you have a receipt from the Railroad Avenue Garage or Curtis Confectionaries?
- Do you have a train ticket to Niwot, receipt from the Whistlestop craft shop or Yankee Doodle bookstore?

These items would all be considered a Niwot artifact. When you are sorting through boxes or papers, please let us know if/when you see some item that shares Niwot history; artifact donations are always welcome!

Thank you!

Your membership and support is always greatly appreciated.
