The Arapaho In Boulder Valley & Norther Colorado Past, Present & Future

Wednesday, August 21st, 7pm (doors open at 6:30pm)

At The Left Hnad Grange Hall – General Admission $5, Members are Free

The Speaker is Professor of Linguistics & Director for the Center for Native American and
Indigenous Studies (CNAIS)
at CU Boulder

Andrew Cowell

Arapaho-language School, Wind River Reservation, WY.

This presentation will describe Arapaho language, history and culture in northern Colorado in pre-settlement times, the history of tribal removal, and the sometimes surprising ways in which the Arapaho are returning to Colorado over the last few years with the help of many local people, and developing new relationships.

The speaker has been involved in assisting with Arapaho language revitalization efforts, in particular, and speaks Arapaho himself.
